Your Information.
Your Rights.
Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.
When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record
- You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct your medical record
- You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
- We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications
- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share
- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations.
  - We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.
  - If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer.
  - We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.
| Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information | · You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
· We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months. |

| Choose someone to act for you | · If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
· We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action. |
| File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated | · You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on the back page.
· You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
· We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint. |
For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation
- Include your information in a hospital directory

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes, except for communications that are made face-to-face by a PMC employee or which are promotional gifts of nominal value provided by PMC
- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes
- Substance abuse records

In the case of fundraising:

- We may use certain information (name, address, telephone number, email, age, date of birth, gender, health insurance status, dates of service, department of service, treating physician or outcome) to contact you for the purpose of fundraising, but you can tell us not to contact you again. For the same purpose, we may provide your name to our institutionally related foundation. The money raised will be used to expand improve the services and programs we provide to the community. You are free to opt-out off any or all fundraising solicitations and your decision will have no impact on your treatment or payment for services at Pikeville Medical Center.

Changes to the Terms of This Notice
We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you as of the effective date of the change. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.

Joint Notice
This Notice of Privacy Practices is intended as a joint notice on behalf of Pikeville Medical Center ("PMC"), the members of PMC's medical staff who may provide treatment to you at PMC's facility(s), and the corporations or other legal entities through which those medical staff members may render such treatment (collectively the “OHCA”). The OHCA is an organized healthcare arrangement and members of the OHCA will share protected health information with each other as necessary to carry out treatment, payment, and healthcare operations related to their organized health care arrangement. The joint nature of this notice is solely for the purpose of compliance with certain requirements of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act and the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act and is in no way intended to imply that any provider is an employee of PMC or that PMC is legally responsible for the acts and omissions of any provider who is not employed by PMC.
